BEVERAGE & DRINK PREMIXES

One could grab a fruit juice on the go or enjoy a glass of cold iced tea, there is no refuting the high consumption rate of beverages. While one can benefit from the Vitamin C in freshly squeezed orange juice, it isn't always feasible to procure it. Fortification of beverages broadens the avenue to ensure fulfillment of daily micronutrient requirement.

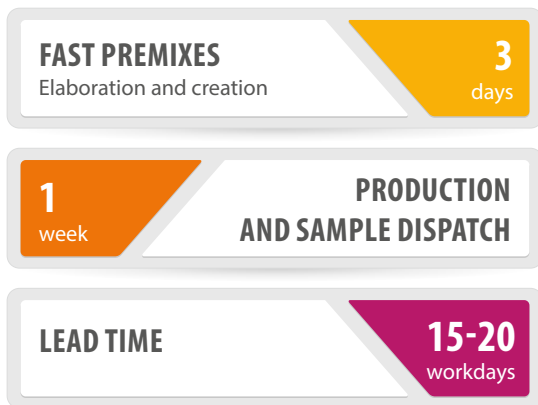

Meal replacement drinks have recently gained great popularity in the market owing to their convenience and the fortification of such drinks is absolutely necessary to reap its benefits.

MIAVIT Food specializes in creating customized vitamin and mineral blends according to customer requirements for various beverages and drinks.

MIAVIT FOOD

The extensive experience and knowledge at MIAVIT Food enables one to acquire the perfect micronutrient blend for the product at hand. The blends are customized on the bases of need for each product with an aim to minimize compound interactions and undesirable effects to achieve a palatable end product of high standards.
